

WHO I AM IN CHRIST

My inheritance

God's Word outlines all the attributes that we receive when we accept Christ as our Savior.

These truths are ours unconditionally because we are God's children. They are available to all believers whether we are young or mature in our faith.

With the help of the Holy Spirit, we can claim these attributes and walk in our new identity each and every day. This is our legal identity as believers. We are a new creation!

Unfortunately, we often don't experience in our daily life what God has given us. Walking in God's power requires us to acknowledge, declare, and choose to believe as true what God says about us in Scripture. We have to put aside our feelings and any poor thinking, and speak God's Word over ourselves.

As we claim His truth, God begins to make our daily experiences align with the truths of scripture. The key here is that we CHOOSE to believe in who God created us to be. It's a daily act of the WILL.

For example, when you are feeling unworthy and unacceptable, take capture that thought and replace it with Romans 15:7. You are accepted by Christ! You are loved and worthy!

I encourage you to read through the scriptures below. Read the entire list or pick out those few verses that fit your current circumstances. Repeat these verses daily as needed. Be encouraged! Your life will begin to change as you declare God's Word over your life.

Many thanks to Tamara Buchan (www.reclaimidentity.org) for sharing this compiled list.
